IVY TECH COMMUNITY COLLEGE Key to Transcript of Records

I. COLLEGE NAME CHANGE

On June 1, 1995, Indiana Vocational Technical College changed its name in accordance with legislative mandate to Ivy Tech State College. On July 1, 2005, Ivy Tech State College changed its name in accordance with legislative mandate to Ivy Tech Community College of Indiana.

II. RECORD FORMAT

Effective Fall 1990, Ivy Tech Community College course work is reflected on a computer-generated record. Course work taken prior to Fall 1990, is reflected on a manual record and photocopied. Official transcripts bear the raised seal of the college and are signed by the registrar.

III. CALENDAR AND ACADEMIC CREDIT

Prior to Fall 1990, Ivy Tech Community College operated under the quarter calendar. The Summer, Fall, Winter and Spring quarters were eleven weeks in length. Academic credit for each period was reported in terms of quarter hours.

Beginning in Fall 1990, Ivy Tech Community College began operating under the semester calendar. Academic credit is now reported in terms of semester hours.

Students who attended under both the quarter and semester calendars have had their quarter cumulative statistics converted (factor of .7) and added to their semester statistics.

IV. CUMULATIVE GRADE POINT AVERAGE (GPA)

Through Fall 1997, GPA (or GPI) was obtained by dividing quality points by attempted hours. Attempted hours include all non-academic skills advancement courses graded A-F.

From Winter 1987 through Summer 1990, GPA was calculated by dividing quality points by earned hours. The earned hours included all non-academic skills advancement courses graded A-F.

Beginning Fall 1990, GPA is calculated by dividing quality points by quality hours. Quality Hours include all non-academic skills advancement courses graded A-F.

Before Fall 1985, Ivy Tech Community College regional campuses could elect to include only those courses related to the approved educational objective of the student and academic skills advancement courses in the GPA. Beginning Fall 1985, all courses except skills advancement courses were included in the GPA without regard to program or campus. GPA reflects only the highest grade achieved in any course that a student may have taken more than once.
